MESSAGE FROM THE EDITORS

A yearbook is like a time capsule. It is full of good memories that you will cherish for the rest of your life. With it you will eventually pass on happy times and much laughter to future generations.

We have discovered that in order to make a yearbook successful you need patience, perseverance, and devotion. It requires a great deal of time to make a memorable yearbook. For that we would like to thank the entire yearbook committee, who have been reliable and responsible. They have also been determined and committed to stick it out till the end, when times got rough. These students, with their imagination and creativity are what allowed this yearbook to be rewarding in every possible way.

A special thanks goes to Ms. Cummings and Mrs. Moggy. In their first year as yearbook supervisors, they have brought original ideas and constructive criticism. They made this yearbook possible by giving us their trust and support. Our successful outcome would have never been achieved had it not been for these two kind and co-operative teachers. They have not only been our mentors but have also become our friends. On behalf of the entire yearbook committee, we thank Mrs. Moggy and Ms. Cummings for putting in their personal time and giving us their support.

We hope you will enjoy this yearbook. May it contain all of the memories you will cherish for years to come. Thank You.

Erin Dickinson and Kelly Wheeler
Co-Editors - K.L.C.V.I. Yearbook Committee

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

During the past year I was honoured to be the president of the Students' Council. On behalf of the members, I would like to thank the teachers and students for making this year such a memorable one.

To all the clubs and organizations in the school, we appreciate your efforts at making this year so much fun. To all the teams and the coaches, you guys have made us proud - congratulations on your achievements. To the yearbook committee, thank you for working so hard to produce another wonderful yearbook to capture our days here at K.L.C.V.I.

To those students who are now leaving this school, I wish luck and laughter in your years to come. To those who have just entered this school, I know you will love your years here. And to those who are in between, it is your turn to make next year even better than this year.

Erin Lake
President - Students' Council

The Principal's Message

The 1999 Conglomerate has been made possible because of the hard work of the Yearbook Committee under the guidance of Ms. H. Cummings and Mrs. K. Moggy.

This year's edition captures memories that students can look back upon fondly in future years; it is a conglomeration of those memories. As you go forward on your life's journeys you will find yourselves going back to the yearbook and saying, "remember when" or "Remember him" or remember her." This is really a book to treasure.

Through your growing years you will set a course and make plans to follow it through your lives. My message is this: don't get discouraged if you encounter setbacks or alter your course. Winds of change may take you along paths you would never have considered or even thought possible. Whatever you do, wherever you go, keep your standards high and always do the best you can do and be the best you can be.

Mr. R. Doner
Principal

The Vice-Principal's Message

Yearbooks are about memories and as I reflect on this year, many things come to mind. Some are immediately noticeable to students, others aren't. This year we saw a number of retirements and as a result a change in the school. In hiring 12 new teachers we dramatically altered the school as how students see it. We welcome each new teacher to K.L.C.V.I. and know that in choosing teaching as a career, they have made a commitment to affect the lives of hundreds of students.

This also was the first year for the amalgamated school board, District School Board O.N.E., a change that most students would not see. It however has made dramatic differences in terms of operational procedures at the administrative level, and will indirectly impact on student life at K.L.C.V.I.

From a standpoint of curriculum, this is the final year of secondary schooling as we've known over the past number of years. Beginning in September of 1999, Secondary School Reform will begin and with it significant changes in terms of both the content and in the processes of education.

Yearbooks are about memories, and 1998/1999 has been significant in that regard.

To all, I hope this year has had a positive impact on your lives, and that you take with you memories that will last a life time.

Mr. B. Bronson
Vice-Principal

Frosh Week is many things to many people. For older brothers and sisters, Frosh Week is a week of revenge. For minor-niners, it is a week of sheer humiliation and torture.

Gag reflexes were put to the test when grade 9's were forced to pass eggs from mouth to mouth, praying to God that the egg didn't break. Also, students endured the "Fly on the Wall", an event when hair was pulled off heads, and skin was ripped off faces. During this event the minor niners were taped to the wall with duct tape and were left hanging helplessly. Lastly, the grade 9's proved that they were pretty good

Jason Leigh Allan Welch
{ September 24, 1981 - October 31, 1998 }

Jason Leigh Allan Welch was 17 years old. Although he attended E.S.J.V. he was well known at K.L.C.V.I. The reason for this was because of his dynamic personality and his willingness to be involved in extra curricular activities, such as the drama club. He was intelligent, funny, talented, courageous, and a wonderful human being. Jason loved to sing and act. He was full of courage and was not afraid to be different. He enjoyed gardening and he loved his fish. Jason was a great listener and a wonderful friend.

Jason loved to sing opera. His opera idol was Maria Callas. He had a documentary of her on tape and many opera books that he loved to show off to people. When he was at Northern College for play rehearsals, he would go in the bathroom or under the stairwells during break and sing his heart out. He was amazing. It is hard to believe that such a powerful voice came from such a small guy. If you were on your way to his house, it was not hard to tell if he was home because you could hear him singing from down the street. Jason was also a marvelous actor. He could play any character he was given, and his accents were amazing. One big achievement Jason made was performing "Fritz of Arnhem - The Play" at the National Arts Center in Ottawa for Veterans' Week, November of 1997. After the play was over, Jason, his sister Sharon, Jennifer McLenaghan, and I stayed at the National Arts Center to meet Jackie Burroughs ( Road to Avonlea's, Hetty King). That was a moment Jason had never forgotten.

Jason was full of courage. In July 1998, he had the courage to protest for gay rights at Albion Amusements. He put up with all of the insults, mockery, and ridicule, but still he managed to go on. Also, he was very determined. Once Jay had his mind made up to do something, you could not change his mind. In addition, he was very blunt. Many people admired Jay for his courage. He was not afraid to do anything. Jason was also known as "Jasmine". "Jasmine" was introduced to everyone while away in Ottawa. One morning when we were all going to breakfast, Jason came in wearing Crystalyn's long dark maroon dress, a black chin-length wig, high heels, and make-up. As mentioned before, Jason had a lot of courage. Everyone accepted his change willingly, except for the fact he looked better in a dress than any other girl in the cast.

Among other things, Jason really enjoyed gardening. Every time he came over to my house for dinner, he would always talk to my mom about putting in a garden for her in the backyard. He had great pride in his little garden and would give me tips on how to take care of tomato plants. In addition, he also loved his fish. One year when he went away with the drama club to a festival, he brought two of his fish with him in a plastic bag. Every so often, he would open the bag and blow some air in there. Needless to say, neither of the fish made it back home with him.

Jason was the kind of friend anyone would love to have. If you were feeling down, he would try to cheer you up the best he could. One saying that made everyone smile was "Hey Babes" or "Love ya, Babes". He always cheered me up by calling me "Ann-Burito" or "Bun". You could talk to Jay about anything. He liked to talk about philosophy, theology, and just 'stuff'. He always listened to you if you ever had anything to say. If you had a problem, you could go to him and he would try his best to help you through it. He was always there for you. He would never judge you. He liked people for who they were. He always found a way to make you feel special.

There is so much more that could be written about Jason and all that he has done and how many hearts he has touched. We will certainly miss him very much and remember him always. We lost an extremely talented, and caring friend. As Amanda Wilson said, "Our loss is certainly heaven's gain." So Jason, on behalf of your family and friends, I thank you, I salute you for your brilliant mind, your passion and commitment for acting and singing. I admire you for your leadership, your patience and understanding. We were blessed with your honesty, your unconditional acceptance, love and support. I say good-bye. I love you. We all love you.

Battle On The Court:

The teacher-student volleyball game. Judgement day. Surely with the students' young, athletic bodies, they'd win by a landslide. Well, this wasn't the outcome-exactly. The students won one game, and the ever so slightly athletically-challenged teachers won one game as well! Game #1 was one by the teachers with a score of 16-14. The students made a comeback, and the second game was theirs ending with a score of 15-11. Who knows? Maybe the teachers aren't as athletically-challenged as we thought, or maybe the students let them win.....

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council has been very active this year. So far the committee has organized three dances, Christmas assembly and the Christmas semi formal. The members have been seen generating school spirit at sporting events and organized spirit week during the first week of school. They have also been working diligently on the graduation. Two more events are planned for the spring and they are sure to be a success. Thanks for the memorable year!

Missing: Leah Gardiner, Megan Conway

CO-ED ATHLETIC COUNCIL

The Co-Ed Athletic Council has brought us treats at Halloween and Valentines Day. They helped generate school spirit through pep rallies held in the fall and winter. The committee challenged the teachers by organizing a staff vs. student volleyball game at Christmas and the annual hockey game, Rendez-Vouz, in the spring. The co-ed athletic executives have also made noon-hour a time to play sports through noon-hour activities such as ping-pong and intermural sports. This year two members were sent to the Ontario Education Leadership Camp to improve athletics at KLCVI.

MIDGET BASKETBALL

The midget boys basketball team did well this year. Unfortunately, they lost the NEOAA play-off game to ESSM, however, the entire team put forth a strong effort. The two team captains were Ward Bowman and Brandon Lewis. The boys also did some fund-raising this year. The boys sold cheese and Christmas greeting cards in order to raise money for tournament costs, etc. The team shared a couple laughs each time Brandon Lewis made a finger roll, but they all shared a memorable team moment when he actually made a real lay-up! Nice work! Great season boys!

Missing: Andrew Lawrence, Chris Payette, Steve Polyblank, Eric Schuessler

Midget girls had a very exciting year. It reached a peak when the girls were under the gun to make it to the championship tournament. At TDSS (last game of the season), 3 seconds left, down 1 point, Melissa Lachapelle steals the ball from a pass and gets a basket before the buzzer! Needless to say, the girls were pumped and were ready to bring the championship title home. Unfortunately, due to unforeseen circumstances, KLCVI lost their first game and won the next leaving them in third place overall. Great season girls!

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

The Junior Boys maintained a perfect record in the regular season en route to claiming the South Region Championship. They finished second to Timmins High at the NEOAA Championship tournament. Leadership was provided in the back court by spectacular guard Julio Viskovich and in the paint by dominating centre, Darryl Todd.

Missing: Mike Lake, Ryan Marshall, Sean McCurdy, Darren Thompson

The Junior Girls basketball met ESJV in a tie-breaking game to decide the South Region Championship. The Devils prevailed! The team later met RMSS in the final for the NEOAA Championship but came up a bit short. The girls had an excellent year capped by a fabulous spaghetti feast at Mr. Finner's pad.

Missing: Shari Brown, D'Arcey MacKinnon

SENIOR BASKETBALL

The Senior Girls Basketball team made it all the way to the NEOAA Championship where they lost to Roland Michener. The captains are Jennifer Nychuk and Jana Siemon and everyone is a star according to Mr. Larouche.

Cheese was sold to raise funds. Scary bloopers were Amanda Rorison's and Jana Siemon's morning hair, and the most memorable moment was kicking TDSS's butt.

The Senior Boys Basketball game record was 1 win and 8 defeats. They lost in the Consolation Final of TH & VS Gold Cup. The captains are Jeremy Sheldon and Jason Ryan. The most outstanding rebounder was Jeff Knapp and the most consistent scorer was Jamie Belecque. The most major blooper was a pull-up three-point airball on a fast break by a dark-haired member of Team Larder in the Gold Cup - Right Ryan?! The most memorable moment was starting Team Larder in the final home game... the alternative was Team Barker/Hodgins/Spencer.

MIDGET VOLLEYBALL

The Midget Boys did not have a winning season, on the court. They were the team to reckon with off the court. Captain Tanner Rosko, played a wonderful season after finally getting 10 serves in a row....and winning a meal. Ward Bowman won MVP for the year. Ward had excellent hitting along with Kevin and Eric. The team had a wonderful season and look forward to next year.

The Midget girls had an excellent season. They won first place at the Southern NEOAA's, second place at the NEOAA's, and second place at the Timmin's Invitational Volleyball Tournament. The captain was Melissa Lachapelle. She was also MVP. Their most memorable moment was always being out of rotation.....but never caught!

JUNIOR VOLLEYBALL

The Junior Boys Volleyball Team, coached by Ms. Lindsay, placed third this season in league play. Memorable moments include the captain, Mike Barker's power hitting, and the time Ryan forgot his KLCVI socks! Great work boys!

The Junior Girls Volleyball team had a fantastic season. They smashed, spiked, and bumped the ball to championships this year!! An honorable mention goes out to Sheena Perrier. One of the funny moments occurred when Carlyn was on the net and Jessica caught the ball instead of bumping it. Winning the championships was one of their most memorable moments.

SENIOR VOLLEYBALL

This year's Senior Girls Volleyball has accomplished many activities throughout the year. On their EST tournament, they won their pool, but lost in the semis. On their tournament in Ottawa the girls lost in the quarter-final to eventual champion 2-1. They had also finished second in the league. The captain of the team is Alyssa Banting and the star players are Jana Siemon, Jen Nychuk, Chloe Garner, and Sylvie Mullins. To support their team, the girls did some fundraising by selling CD's and candles. Some of their memorable moments they would like to mention are losing close match to Earl of March, Kristal's shirt, and driving to Ottawa.

Missing- Monique Bronson

The Senior Boys Volleyball has improved dramatically by the entire team and should be very proud of themselves. The captain and the MVP of the team is Chris Presely. Also Presely was combining for two quick kills against TDSS.

Missing- R.Burke, D.Cozac, M.Dzambic, C.Presely, M.D'Onofrio

SOCCER

Although the girls soccer team has not started their season, they are practicing hard to make it a good one. They have done many fund-raisers such as craft sales, bake sales, bottledrives, making perogies, present wrapping at the mall, dances, and making cabbage rolls to raise money for their trip to Scotland and England in March 2000. Good luck and have fun girls!

The boys soccer team lost to eventual NEOAA Champions E.S.S.M. in a shootout (penalty shots) at Johnson Field. The "star" athlete on the team, Julio Viskovich, pulled off another great season. Captain Jason Ryan will be here again next year but co-captain Mike Fournier will be missed!

CROSS COUNTRY RUNNING

Despite the small number of runners, the Cross Country Running Team exceeded all expectations. The team went to two meets in New Liskeard and showed their unstoppable will to succeed. There was tremendous pressure on the team because this was the first time in several years that KLCVI had a team, They had to go hard or go home and they came through! Ryan Ede and Brandon Lewis competed at OFSSA. Thanks to coach Matijek for a great season.

TRACK AND FIELD

The track team hopes to qualify for OFSSA and with the dream team of running, they will be a power to deal with. Mr. Matijek has been using innovative coaching methods this pre-season including soccer, football, bike riding and strength training to improve his athletes performance and to create team spirit. They look forward to a great season as the track meets have yet to begin. Good Luck Devils!

CURLING

At SNEOAA Championships the girls experienced two close losses to teams with much more experience. One of the memorable moment was when Jen was pinching Jana's butt. Remember the team blooper involving Chloe's hat! Thanks to coach Larouche and for the assistance of Mr. Fox and Mr. Davidson.

The Boys Curling Team qualified for NEOAA Championships this season. Due to the nature of the sport of curling, spills (and maybe thrills) are not uncommon! The team worked together for a good season. An extra thanks is extended to Mr. Davidson and Mr. Fox for their time and effort.

BADMINTON

The Badminton has been practicing since September two times a week. The team has gone to tournaments in Iroquois falls, Timmins and New Liskeard, they will be going to three more before the season ends. The senior girls gave outstanding performance in Timmins and came first at the tournament. Most notably, the Badminton team qualified to go to the NEOAA in Iroquois Falls. A special thanks to Mr. D. Mullins for coaching the team.

SEAL

SEAL is an outdoor education club dedicated to developing students' ability to perform in a team setting and an individual basis as they face some of nature's challenges. This year, SEAL climbed Mt. Cheminis, provided KLCVI with Christmas trees, cross country skied, undertook a spring camp-out, and are planning a three day canoe trip for June. SEAL sends special thanks to Miss Grainger who is no longer at the school.

PROM & GRAD COMMITTEE

This incredible committee worked tremendously hard this year to ensure that their class graduated on stage at Northern College. They held dances, car washes, bottle drives, they planned theme days and beach parties and sold candy canes to raise funds for their class. This group took on the awesome task of organizing a Grad trip, Prom night at Northwood Camp and graduation. A special thanks goes out to these dedicated members.

CONCERT BAND

The KLCVI Concert Band has had another successful year in 1998-99. After fund-raising with the annual Band-a-thon in November, they performed in Arts Night in December. Once again, they have participated in the Northern Ontario Band Festival in Sudbury, March 6 & 7, and were awarded Bronze Standing for their efforts. At this time, they are preparing for the Kiwanis Festival in April, and will end the year at Music Night, currently scheduled for late May.

STAGE BAND

Stage band is "the most rockin' band in school!" this band had a switch in conductors this year. Mr. Binnendyk graciously stepped down after first semester to allow Ms. Bole to give it a try. Things have gone very well. This band shows a lot of enthusiasm and have got off to a great start this semester. They will be performing during Music Night and look forward to this opportunity to develop as musicians to become an even more "rockin' band" next year!

PEP BAND

Pep Band this year continued their improvements with even more performances to support the athletic program at KLCVI. They played at numerous games for both girls and boys basketball, and warmed up the school at two different pep rallies. Once again, they played at Rendez-Vous '99, making sure to support the students against those pesky teachers! Next year they hope to have new members to add more excitement and fun to the group!

ADOPT-A-CHILD

The Adopt-a-child committee has done a phenomenal job in supporting people in need throughout the year. They have sent aid to victims of Hurricane Hugo and helped Kosovo refugees in Yugoslavia. They raised fund to support a young boy, Fabio, who lives in Columbia, South America. The students have also fund raised to support their own community. They raised fund by holding bake sales, selling Angus products (posters & magnets) and Easter bundles. They also participated in a 12 hour famine in support of Fabio. Thanks to Ms. Pacey to for her dedication.

Back Row: Angie Bodick,

VOLUNTEER CLUB

The volunteer club has been very successful this past year. They helped set up and take down assemblies and served lunch and dinner at the Encore club, as well as many other miscellaneous jobs. "The members of the club are dependable and hardworking:" says Mrs. Presley, " they should be very proud of themselves." A special mention goes out to Andrea McClaire for her hard work and dedication.

DRAMA CLUB

This year the drama club participated in the ITS Drama Festival in North Bay. ITS is a non-competitive drama festival where actors have a chance to display their talents. Students from all over Northern Ontario came together not only to act but to make new friends. KLCVI did a wonderful job performing "Emil You're Going to be A Dog."

During lunch hour, some members of the drama club participated in improvisation with Miss Terpstra.

An Exchange Student's view of Kirkland Lake

As my plane descended into Kirkland Lake, on the other side of the world. I considered the fact that I was giving up everything I knew I had no idea what I was getting myself into. I had been told that Kirkland Lake was a small mining town in Northern Ontario, and that was all I knew. When I got out of the airport, and had to push my counselor's car out of a snowbank, I realized how things were going to be different from Dipton, New Zealand, where actually getting snow means a hard winter.

Soon I began learning what made Canada special: the French language heard throughout the halls, a curling rink in the center of town, and bears. Learning how to ski and snowboard was a lot of fun, and learning to ice-skate was just spectacular: (I now have a permanent reminder of Canada in my skull!) Moose hunting, skidooring, and other such adventures were ingredients for a unique year.

The people of Kirkland Lake were what really made my exchange marvelous. The Kirkland Lake Rotary and my counselors, who organized everything, my host families who took me in and fed me; the friends I made around Kirkland Lake, who showed me what the Northern Spirit was all about, and all the people of the community who helped me out and made sure I had the most wonderful times. A big thank-you to all these people, who made my year in Canada what it was.

As the plane lifted off for Toronto and home, I thought about all the stuff I was leaving behind (especially Tim Hortons). I had so many great memories, the idea of leaving at three o'clock in the morning seemed completely bizarre. Turn the plane around, I want to go home, eh!

Killer hurricane – One of the deadliest Atlantic hurricanes ever, Hurricane Mitch unleashed mudslides that swallowed entire villages, left more than 10,000 dead and more than 1.5 million homeless last November. In the Honduran capital of Tegucigalpa, people struggled to cope with a shortage of food, water and gasoline. Here, they sort through the debris left after one-third of their homes were damaged or swept away. Gregory Bull / AP

Riots and resignations – Of all the Asian nations that suffered as a result of that region's financial crisis, Indonesia suffered the most. The value of its currency fell by 60 per cent, millions of people lost their jobs, and tens of millions were thrown into poverty. The crisis sparked a wave of riots and protests, like this one in Jakarta, which helped force President Suharto to resign in May, 1998, after 32 years in power. ACHMAD IBRAHIM / AP

Movie star prez – The Philippines elected a new president, Joseph Estrada (right), a wildly popular, former movie actor. Here, he joins National police Chief Roberto Lastimoso at his July, 1998, installation ceremony in Manila. ERIK DE CASTRO / REUTERS

Clinton's folly – It was a bad year, to put it mildly, for U.S. President Bill Clinton. For many Americans, and people around the world, Clinton became a laughingstock for his behaviour and subsequent lies about his relationship with former White House intern Monica Lewinsky. That led to only the second presidential impeachment trial in U.S. history, but in the end there were not enough votes in the Senate to convict him. Despite all that, a booming U.S. economy allowed Clinton to withstand most criticism and maintain record public-approval levels. RICK WILKING / REUTERS

Blazing inferno – Firefighters from as far west as Oregon helped Florida's crews battle blazes that ultimately burned tens of thousands of acres in June, 1998. Here, Amy Midgett of North Carolina fights the blaze near Daytona Beach. NIGEL COOK / DAYTONA BEACH NEWSJOURNAL / AP

Horror in Kosovo – Before this year, few people had ever heard of Kosovo. But the tiny province of Yugoslavia, populated mostly by Albanian Muslims, sparked a virtual declaration of war by several western nations, including Canada. They launched massive air strikes against Yugoslav military targets in an attempt to stop Yugoslavia's brutal repression of ethnic Albanians in its rebellious province. Here, villagers driving tractors and horse-drawn carts flee the fighting. It was the first time since the Korean War of the early 1950s that Canada participated in launching a military offensive. Since then, Canada has been involved mostly in military support roles or in peacekeeping missions. YANNIS BEHRAKIS / REUTERS

Coinless currency – The new year brought in a new currency, the Euro. A giant step towards the unification of Europe, the Euro will link 11 key European currencies into one. Eventually, starting in 2002, it will physically replace those currencies for daily transactions. Here, a Swiss trader checks the Euro spot rate in Zurich. ANDREAS MEIER / REUTERS

Desperately seeking peace – The elusive search for peace in the Middle East appeared to move a step closer with yet another deal brokered by an American president. Here, Palestinian leader Yasser Arafat (left) and Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu (right) join King Hussein of Jordan at the White House in October, 1998, prior to signing an agreement calling for further Israeli troop withdrawals from the Palestinian West Bank. Four months later, Netanyahu was forced to call early elections in a dispute over the deal, and Hussein died of cancer after 46 years in power. DOUG MILLS / AP

A change of pace – For career politician Jean Charest, it was time to give up one job and start another. And in doing so he switched parties: Charest resigned as leader of the federal Progressive Conservative party and took over the Quebec Liberal party. While the move boosted Liberal party popularity in Quebec, it was not enough to defeat separatist Premier Lucien Bouchard in November's provincial election. Still, Charest won the popular vote and picked up enough seats in the national assembly to put another sovereignty referendum on the back burner. Charest is pictured on election night with his wife, Michèle Dionne. ANDREW VAUGHAN / CP

An historic coin – A thousand years ago, the Blackfoot of Alberta were making etchings in sandstone cliffs. This tradition of petroglyphs, or carvings on rocks, is commemorated by the Royal Canadian Mint in a new millennium coin, a quarter entitled Etched in Stone. It depicts three images – a horse, a human and a shield-bearing warrior.

Manning's mission – After losing the June, 1997, federal election to Jean Chrétien, Reform party Leader Preston Manning has been campaigning to create a new political party to be called the United Alternative, which would bring together all the forces opposed to the federal

Liberals. Here, he delivers a speech in Ottawa at the February United Alternative convention, where an agreement was reached to put the UA proposal to a vote by members of his Reform party. If the Reformers OK the idea, it would effectively end the Reform party. FRED CHARTRAND / CP

ANDY CLARK / REUTERS

Hail to the Chief – It is the most far-reaching, and controversial land-claims deal in Canadian history. The treaty provides for aboriginal self-government for some 5,500 Nisga'a living on about 2,000 square kilometres of land in northwestern British Columbia, plus an estimated $500 million in cash and government programs. when Clark became prime minister for nine months in 1979, and wife Maureen McTeer. FRED SHERWIN / OTTAWA SUN / CP

Happy birthday – Despite the Opposition's complaints that he is 'yesterday's man', Prime Minister Jean Chrétien proved that he is still in fine form by running up the stairs to his Parliament Hill office on his 65th birthday, on Jan. 11. He also made it clear that he has no plans to retire or apply for Canada Pension Plan benefits.

Peppering the crowd – It was the incident that just would not go away. In November, 1997, at the APEC gathering of Pacific leaders in Vancouver, the RCMP pepper-sprayed a group of protesters. Did the police overreact and was the Prime Minister's Office involved in the decision? Those nagging questions continue to be debated in Parliament and are the subject of an official inquiry. The issue claimed Solicitor General Andy Scott, who was forced to resign after being caught talking indiscreetly about it with a friend on an airplane. H. RUCKEMANN / UPI

The newest territory – Canada got a new territory on April 1, part of a bold new experiment in self-government for the largely Inuit population of Nunavut. Twice the size of Ontario, but with just 25,000 people, Nunavut comprises most of the eastern Arctic and used to be part of the Northwest Territories, now split in two. Here, three young girls celebrate Nunavut's creation in its new capital of Iqaluit. KEVIN FRAYER / CP

End of an era – Hospitals will likely have a reduced role in overall health care in the years to come. As home care and outpatient treatment become more common, there will be less need to maintain expensive large hospitals. Here, the Calgary General Hospital is demolished last fall. Time for a pause — Celine Dion took home two Grammy Awards, for record of the year and for best female pop performance, for My Heart Will Go On, the wrenching ballad from the movie Titanic. The Quebecer's album sold an astounding 26-million copies worldwide and helped Dion become the top-selling artist of 1998. Later, she won four Junos and announced she would stop performing for a few years to start a family.

Record breaker — Ottawa's Alanis Morissette paid a visit to the MuchMusic studios in Toronto two days before the November 3 release of Supposed Former Infatuation Junkie, the follow-up to the wildly successful Jagged Little Pill. A few weeks later, Morissette earned the distinction of having sold more albums in one week than any other woman in pop-music history.

KEVIN FRAYER / CP

New sensation — Hip-hop star Lauryn Hill burst onto the music scene this year and won a record five Grammys. Her album, The Miseducation of Lauryn Hill, was voted album of the year and she was voted best new artist, an award she received with her Bible in hand.

99 TOURNAMENT OF HEARTS	NOVA SCOTIA
98 WWF	STONE COLD STEVE AUSTIN

Poster boy – Roots poster boy Ross Rebagliati of Whistler, B.C., came on strong with Olympic gold in Nagano, Japan, but has struggled to live up to those auspicious beginnings. At this winter's Snowboarding World Cup giant slalom at Mont-Stee-Anne, Que., Rebagliati, who was 14th after one run, lost control in the second run, only a few gates from the finish line.

Skipper Colleen – Nova Scotia skip (and, in her other life, NewsWorld's weather-person out of Halifax) Colleen Jones guides her team's rock in to the house and her team to the number 1 spot in the 1999 Canadian national championships. It was the second time Jones had led her team to the national championship – her first win came 17 years earlier!

Passing the baton – Even without 100-m world-record-holder Donovan Bailey, the Canadian 4 x 100-m relay team won a silver medal in the Commonwealth Games last September in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. Here, O'Brian Gibbons passes the baton to Trevino Betty in the semi-finals.

Homer King – St. Louis Cardinals slugger Mark McGwire hits his record-breaking 62nd home run on Sept. 8, surpassing the major-league single-season home run record set by Roger Maris in 1961. By the end of the season, McGwire had hit 70 home runs – and the Chicago Cubs Sammy Sosa had hit 66.

Space watch – Astronauts Marc Garneau and Julie Payette look at a model of the International Space Station that is now orbiting the Earth. Payette and Garneau were scheduled to participate in the ongoing construction of the station that will gather scientific information in outer space. The mission is the first for Payette, an engineer from Montreal, and the third for Garneau. CP

Hide and seek – Don't get lost without one. It's the world's smallest global positioning system, part of a prototype wrist-watch unveiled by Casio Computer Co. The display shows the exact latitude and longitude based on information received from 24 satellites that orbit the Earth.

Tiny Player

The Rio digital portable music player, a Walkman-like device, can download CD-quality music from a home computer and store and play tunes as MP3 files. The Rio weighs 110 grams, has no moving parts and operates for up to 12 hours on a single AA battery.

Never too old – In 1962, John Glenn was the first American to orbit the Earth. Last year, at age 77, Glenn made a return visit, as part of a seven-person Discovery space shuttle crew that orbited the earth for eight days. NASA

Finger breakthrough – In less than two years, fingerprints could be identified in half a second with 99-per-cent accuracy thanks to a microchip developed by Nippon Telephone and Telegraph Corp. of Japan. The image on the left is the fingerprint sensed by the microchip. The image on the right is the computerized thinned image of the original. ITSUO INOUE / AP

Dinosaur hunter – Philip Currie, one of only 30 paleontologists in the world specializing in dinosaurs, was, until recently, best-known as curator of the Royal Tyrrell Museum in Drumheller, Alta. But in a major scientific breakthrough, Currie and his colleagues have put an end to the long-running debate about the relationship between dinosaurs and birds, definitively proving their kinship with the help of 120-million-year-old fossils found in China. PHILL SNEL / MACLEAN'S

Maclean's, Canada's weekly newsmagazine, offers resources for Canadian students. In addition to publishing the annual Guide to Canadian Universities and the Guide to Canadian Colleges, the magazine also offers a school program. The Maclean's In-Class Program is a weekly package of lesson plans, quizzes and activities based on Maclean's articles and essays. With a class subscription to Maclean's, each student receives a copy of the magazine, and a variety of weekly and monthly teaching materials and resources are sent to the teacher as a bonus. For more information call 1-800-668-1951 or (416) 596-5514, or visit the program's website at www.mh-education.com.
